

© ASSOCIATED INDEPENDENT STORES LTD 2006

Part of the process of sharing information at AIS includes the provision of statistical data.

By providing confidential access to various annual statistics comparing members' sales, departmental results and operating expenses, members can assess their performance in merchandise categories against realistic benchmarks. Informative reports on bank charges for example can result in substantial savings.

Statistical Information